Vacancy Notice 2025/223 – HQ (AD) Legal Adviser in the Division “Administrative Law and EU Civil Service Law” (SG.LD.2)

Type of post “Administrator”

Job no. 506343 and 506338

Eligibility grade for EU officials: AD 5 – AD 12

Grade of recruitment for candidates from the Member States and current temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS: AD 7

WE ARE

The European External Action Service (hereafter, the “EEAS”) supports the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy (hereafter, the “High Representative”) in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy, to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU’s external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Division “Administrative Law and EU Civil Service Law” (SG.LD.2) is one of the two legal divisions which together constitute the EEAS Legal Department, under the responsibility of the Director for the Legal Department.

The Legal Department provides independent legal advice to the High Representative and the EEAS services, upon request or on its own initiative, on all aspects relating to their mandates and tasks under the Treaties and the Council Decision establishing the EEAS. The Legal Department also represents the High Representative and the EEAS in judicial proceedings before the Court of Justice of the European Union and coordinates the representation of the Union and of the EEAS before other jurisdictions as required.

The Division SG.LD.2 covers all legal questions relating, inter alia, to the EEAS administrative activities and the implementation of the EU Staff Regulations (hereafter, the “SR”) and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the “CEOS”), the EU Financial Regulation (hereinafter, the “FR”) and other administrative areas including diplomatic privileges and immunities, security, public access to documents and protection of personal data in Headquarters and EU Delegations.

In particular, this division:

- provides legal advice on EEAS staff matters (including rights and obligations, career, administrative inquiries and disciplinary matters, diplomatic privileges and immunities);
- provides legal advice on administrative law (contractual, financial and procurement issues);

- reviews draft internal administrative rules (in particular those implementing the SR/CEOS and the FR);
- reviews draft replies to administrative requests and complaints, as well as other individual decisions where necessary;
- reviews draft confirmatory replies to access to documents requests and draft replies to Ombudsman requests;
- drafts court submissions and represents the EEAS in judicial proceedings in administrative and staff matters;
- coordinates the legal representation of the Union in disputes before local courts in the EU and in third countries.

WE PROPOSE

Two posts of Legal Adviser in the Division for Administrative Law and EU Civil Service Law (SG.LD.2), mainly on administrative law (e.g. contractual, financial and procurement issues), diplomatic privileges and immunities of EU staff and security.

PLACE and DATE OF EMPLOYMENT

EEAS Headquarters, Brussels, Belgium

Post available: 01/02/2026 (indicative)

LEGAL BASIS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THIS POSITION

The successful candidates for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) of the Staff Regulations (hereafter, the "SR") if they are an EU official;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State or reassigned if they are a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies;
- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(b) of the SR if they are an EU official from another institution;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(c) of the SR (competition laureates) if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned.

WE LOOK FOR

Under the authority of the Head of Division, the successful candidates will be required, in particular, to:

- provide legal analysis, advice and assistance in the areas falling under the responsibility of the Division, in particular as regards the EU Financial Regulation, diplomatic privileges and immunities of EU staff and security;
- provide legal review of internal administrative rules;
- provide legal support and advice for handling disputes and civil claims (pre-contentious stage and litigation stage);
- draft briefing notes and legal analyses;
- draft court submissions and act as an agent representing the EEAS in litigation before the EU Courts.

This position is classified as an "Administrator" type of post¹ in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12.

If selected for the post, candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States will be recruited at grade AD 7.

Current EEAS temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the "CEOS") applies and who have a higher grade than the one determined above for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States shall retain their current grade in case of selection for the post. If their grade is below the one set for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, they will be reclassified at grade AD 7.

Candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS currently employed in the EEAS should be in a position to serve during the full duration of the assignment of the post, which is in principle four years, within the limits provided for by Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS².

Eligibility Criteria³

- General

In addition to the conditions set out in Article 28 of the SR for EU officials or in Article 12 of the CEOS for temporary agents, candidates must:

1. be an EU official, a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies or a member of staff from the national diplomatic service of a Member State;
2. have the capacity to work both orally (including before courts) and in writing in the languages of the CFSP and external relations (English and French);
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent working experience as a lawyer or legal adviser or officer in reviewing tender, purchase and lease contracts, in particular with regards to the EU Financial Regulation.
4. Have 2-years proven experience in litigation as a lawyer or agent representing parties, Member States or institutions before EU Courts or national courts.

EPSO and EEAS internal competition laureates who are on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 of the SR may have their applications considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1) of the SR, or by Article 29(1)(b) of the SR;

- Specific eligibility criteria for EU officials and temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies

1. EU officials or temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must occupy a post in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12, or have occupied such a post before their change in administrative status in accordance with Article 35 of the SR, or occupy an AST post and be on the list drawn up according to Article 45(a)(c) of the SR (certification list).
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, candidates currently serving in a Delegation will be eligible only if the deadline for applications is less than six months from the end of their current posting. Other applications may only be considered in the interest of the service.

² Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

³ All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications for this post.

3. Due to the need to ensure business continuity, applications from candidates who have less than two years in their current post in Headquarters at the date of their application are not eligible. Their application may only be considered in the interest of the service.
4. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are EU officials, independently of their administrative status under Article 35 of the SR, cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. In the case of applications from EEAS officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment within the meaning of Article 35(a) of the SR.
5. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.
6. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must provide a new certificate issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs⁴ (hereafter, the "MFA") containing the same elements as requested for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States (see specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States).

- Specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States to be recruited in accordance with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS

In line with Article 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States must:

1. Possess a level of education:
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more; OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years⁵.
2. Have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience.

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

3. The candidates shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin⁶, which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national diplomatic service at the time of the application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment

⁴ Notwithstanding national terminology that may vary from one Member State to another.

⁶ See corresponding certificate annexed to the present vacancy notice

- relationship with the MFA; or that they have the same status/employment relationship at another national administration of their Member State and are on formal secondment to their MFA or an entity placed under the authority of the MFA such as an embassy, a permanent representation or a mission of the Member State accredited to an international organisation;
- endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
- a guarantee of immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service with the EEAS, as required under Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex I of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the MFA of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Candidates must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment within the duration of their service with the EEAS or before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.

Candidates from the national diplomatic services of Member States, who have served continuously 8 or up to the maximum of 10 years as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS pursuant to Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS, are not eligible before a lapse of at least 2 years from the termination of their last contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS⁷.

Selection Criteria:

Candidates should have:

- an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication and management in a complex, multicultural environment;
- an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, civil society, international organizations and EU Member States;
- strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement, both in English and French;
- excellent knowledge of the EU's internal and external policies and instruments, and of the functioning of the Union and its inter-institutional framework; would be considered assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

The successful candidates will be offered a temporary contract of temporary agent under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned with the usual date of mobility at Headquarters (currently 31 August each year).

All newly engaged temporary staff will be required to complete a probationary period of 9 months, in accordance with Article 14 of the CEOS.

CONDITIONS OF RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND SECURITY RISKS

As a matter of policy, applications by individuals who have dual nationality of which one of a non-EU country, will be considered on a case-by-case basis taking account in particular of the functions attributed to the vacant post. The EEAS also examines if there could be a conflict of interest or security risks.

In this context, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex II).

MEDICAL CLEARANCE

If the successful candidate is not an EU official or a temporary agent currently employed in the EEAS, he/she will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that he/she is physically fit to perform the duties.

PERSONNEL SECURITY CLEARANCE

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁸.

A valid Personnel Security Clearance (PSC)⁹ allowing access to classified information, issued by the competent national authority in accordance with national laws and regulations, is mandatory at the moment of application in order to enter the selection process.

The selected candidate may still be required to obtain a new PSC for the present post in accordance with national laws and regulations and with the procedure laid down in the Decision ADMIN(2025)42 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information of 20 November 2025 and in Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS. Until the new PSC is issued, the selected candidate may not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

⁹ The 'Personnel Security Clearance' is defined under point 2 of Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS as "a statement by a competent authority of a Member State which is made following completion of a security investigation conducted by the competent authorities of a Member State and which certifies that an individual may, provided his 'need-to-know' has been determined, be granted access to EUCI up to a specified level (CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above) until a specified date; the individual thus described is said to be 'security cleared'."

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

In case of failure to obtain or renew the required PSC, the AACC may take the appropriate measures in accordance with Article 7 of the Decision ADMIN(2025)42 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information of 20 November 2025.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact the functional mailbox (EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu) in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure with equal opportunities as other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1(d)(4) of the SR.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE¹⁰

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria applicable to their situation in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the online system:

<https://eapplication.eeas.europa.eu>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the aforementioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the online system.

In case of connection problems, you can also refer to the complete EU Login user guide: https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/cas/manuals/EU_Login_Tutorial.pdf

During the online application procedure, candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French) and the declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex II). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and the certificate issued (within the past 6 months) by the MFA of their Member State of origin.

¹⁰ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.html

The closing date for the submission of applications is 7 January 2026 at 12:00 (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the online system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible.

Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter. The panel will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the Appointing Authority/AACC that will make the final selection.

It is recalled that, if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedure can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.

If the successful candidate accepts the position, they will be expected to take up duties on the post. Consequently, their applications to other vacant posts within the EEAS will only be considered after two years on the post. Derogations may be granted in the interest of the service.

ANNEX II

DECLARATION OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST TO BE FILLED BY CANDIDATES

Article 11(3) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union (SR):

"Before recruiting an official, the Appointing Authority shall examine whether the candidate has any personal interest such as to impair his independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the candidate, using a specific form, shall inform the appointing authority of any actual or potential conflict of interest. In such cases, the Appointing Authority shall take this into account in a duly reasoned opinion. If necessary, the Appointing Authority shall take measures referred to in Article 11a(2)".

Article 11a(2) of the SR:

"Any official to whom it falls, in the performance of his duties, to deal with a matter referred to above shall immediately inform the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority shall take any appropriate measure, and may in particular relieve the official from responsibility in this matter".

These provisions apply to temporary agents in accordance with Article 11 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).

It is the candidates' duty to inform through this form the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest regarding their future tasks. They shall be broad in their identification of actual or potential conflict of interests. It is reminded that it will be up to the administration, and not to the candidates themselves, to assess on this basis whether they are sources of conflict of interests and, if applicable, whether they constitute an issue for the recruitment and, if not, whether they should call for adequate mitigating measures to protect both the interests of the institution and of the selected candidate.
