

REFERENCE: DPPA/SCAD/SCSOB/2025/SCA/1/25/(03)

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve on the Group of Experts established pursuant to resolution 1533 \(2004\) on the Democratic Republic of the Congo, subject to the extension of the Group's mandate by the Security Council in June 2025.

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Group of Experts on the Democratic Republic of the Congo that will become vacant in August 2025. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned relevant areas of expertise and competence:

- Arms;
- Armed groups;
- Natural resources/finance;
- Humanitarian affairs.

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For these positions, fluency in English and French is required; knowledge of Swahili and/or Lingala is an advantage.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the expert panel established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4/Rev.1). For further information on the Group of Experts established pursuant to resolution 1533 \(2004\) on the Democratic Republic of the Congo, please visit: <https://main.un.org/securitycouncil/en/sanctions/1533/work-and-mandate>

Member States are invited to submit the names and curricula vitae (CVs) of their nominated candidates, with contact information for three references, to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, United Nations, no later than 24 May 2025, through the following e-mail address: sc-1533-committee@un.org.

In addition, Member States should request their nominated candidates to apply online by 24 May 2025 at:

- <https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/257219?language=en> (arms);
- <https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/257225?language=en> (armed groups);
- <https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/257211?language=en> (natural resources/finance);
- <https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/257223?language=en> (humanitarian affairs).

Only applications received through the online platform will be considered.

In addition to the specific positions above, Member States should also encourage qualified individuals to apply online to the Security Council Affairs Division Pool of Experts at:
<https://careers.un.org/jobSearchDescription/191928?language=en>

The Pool of Experts was developed to facilitate the recruitment of qualified individuals, on short notice, to serve on sanctions monitoring groups, teams and panels established by the Security Council. Applying to the Pool of Experts will not result in direct employment. Similarly, acceptance into the Pool of Experts does not constitute any guarantee or offer of employment. Enquires about joining the Pool of Experts may be directed to SCAD-poolofexperts@un.org.

25 April 2025