Applications submitted after the deadline, incomplete applications, or applications containing deviations or sections inconsistent with the Public Tender and required documentation, applications not completed in the prescribed e-application form through the online system, or applications not submitted on the prescribed forms for this Public Tender and submitted in any other way contrary to the Public Tender will not be considered.

6. SELECTION PROCESS & CRITERIA

After the deadline for submitting applications to the Public Tender has passed, the process of verifying compliance with the prescribed (formal) requirements of the Public Tender and the Rules will commence. Once verified, eligible applications will advance to the next stage and be evaluated by the Office's Committee (hereinafter: the Committee).

The Committee reviews and evaluates applications that have met the prescribed (formal) conditions of the Public Tender according to the following criteria:

- the impact of the program/project on meeting the general and public needs of the Croatian community abroad,
- programs/projects that contribute to the preservation of the national and cultural identity within the Croatian diaspora,
- the impact of the program/project on strengthening the connection between the Croatian emigrant community and the Republic of Croatia, as well as their mutual interconnectedness,
- the impact of the program/project on the beneficiaries and the community,
- the institutional capacity, expertise, and resources for the program's/project's implementation and sustainability.

Based on the Committee's proposal, the decision on the allocation of financial resources is made by the State Secretary.

7. DEADLINE AND METHOD OF PUBLISHING RESULTS

After the decision on the allocation of financial resources is made, the Office will publish the results of the Public Tender on its official website, including information about the programs/projects and organizations that have been awarded funding, as well as the amounts granted.

By submitting an application to the Public Tender, the legal representative of the organization gives consent for the collection and processing, as well as for the publication, of personal data.

With all organizations that are awarded financial support, the State Secretary, or a person authorized by him, will sign an agreement on the allocation of financial support no later than 30 days from the date of the Decision on the allocation of funds.

The contracting process and conditions related to agreements on the allocation of financial support from public sources will be governed by the applicable regulations of the Republic of Croatia and the Office.
