About Eurojust

Eurojust is the European Union Agency for Criminal Justice Cooperation. Through its unique expertise, Eurojust supports, strengthens and improves the coordination of investigations and prosecutions among the competent judicial authorities of EU Member States in the fight against serious and organised cross-border crime.

Eurojust is facing considerable change, including the adoption of a new EU Regulation governing Eurojust and a rising caseload.

Eurojust seeks to recruit dynamic, flexible, highly qualified staff to support its mission and further enhancement of the digitalisation of justice information systems.

More information on the mission and mandate of Eurojust is available on its website: www.eurojust.europa.eu

The position

- Have a thorough knowledge (C1) of one of the languages of the European Union² and a satisfactory knowledge (B2) of another language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties.

2. Minimum qualifications and professional experience

A level of education that corresponds to completed university studies of at least 3 years attested by a diploma.

Only qualifications that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the EU Member States will be taken into consideration.

If your diploma was issued outside the EU, you must provide a certificate of equivalency from an EU Member State to recruitment@eurojust.europa.eu in case you are invited to proceed further in the selection process.

If you do not provide this certificate when requested, Eurojust will not be able to assess your eligibility. More information is available here.

Selection process

1. Shortlisting

The Selection Board will assess all eligible applications on the basis of the following criteria:

Required experience and knowledge

- Proven professional experience in comparable tasks to those listed under “Key accountabilities”. In particular, the Selection Board will assess the range of duties covered, the type and level of work done and its relevance to the vacancy;
- A university degree in law, political sciences, international relations or other relevant fields.

Advantageous

- Knowledge of Eurojust's legal framework and judicial/law enforcement cooperation in the EU;
- Proven professional experience in project management and/or project management certifications (e.g. PMBOK, Prince 2, PMI, PMP, PM2);
- Work experience gained in a similar multicultural environment. Preference will be given to work experience abroad.

The Selection Board will score applications against the above criteria. The academic and professional qualifications, required experience and knowledge considered as requirements or advantageous must be described as precisely as possible in your application.

2. Interview and written test

Following this assessment, the highest-ranking candidates will be invited for an interview and written test, during which the following competencies will be evaluated:

- Knowledge and understanding in your areas of experience that are most relevant to the tasks listed under “Key accountabilities”;
- Ability to work cooperatively in multi-disciplinary teams;
- Adaptability and flexibility, with the ability to work under pressure;
- Customer service orientation;
- Solid planning and organisational skills with an ability to multi-task;
- Strong focus on delivering results and goal oriented;
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, including good command of spoken and written English, the working language of Eurojust.

Applicants invited to the interview must be able to provide copies of all the supporting documents concerning their educational qualifications and employment record. Following the (online) interview and written test, the Selection Board will make a proposal to the Administrative Director on the establishment of a reserve list of suitable candidates, which will be valid until the end of the year in which it will be established, plus two more years. Inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

If you consider yourself to have a physical, mental, intellectual or sensory disability, including any medical conditions that may require special adjustments to the recruitment process (e.g. written test, interview), please indicate any adjustments or arrangements needed to recruitment@eurojust.europa.eu. In light of Eurojust's commitment to equal treatment each request will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

Submission of applications

You must submit your application through eRecruitment. Eurojust does not accept applications submitted by any other means.

All sections of the application must be completed in English. In order to be considered, applications must be received by 11:59:59 CET on the closing date. We advise you to submit your application well ahead of the deadline, in order to avoid potential problems due to heavy traffic on the website.

Please consult the Applicant Guidelines for instructions on completing your application.
